

Press Release

Effective January 22, 2007, Doonan Specialized Trailer, LLC exited the trailer service segment of the industry. The Company is refocusing its resources on trailer production. With a nearly 100% increase in production during the past four months, the Company's management believes it must focus its attention and every available resource toward its core objective of producing specialty trailers in the platform industry.

Doonan Specialized Trailer, LLC will continue to perform any warranty repairs.
